Criminal history

A man who has pled guilty or no contest to or who has been convicted of a crime of moral turpitude is not eligible to apply for membership in Freemasonry. Crimes other than those of moral turpitude do not automatically exclude a person from eligibility for membership, but it is important that the lodge be made aware of any criminal background of an applicant.

 Have you ever been arrested, taken into custody, pleaded guilty or no contest to, or been convicted of, a criminal offense other than a minor traffic violation? Yes No

If yes, state fully all of the facts below, including date and place, the court or other public body disposing of the same, the sentence or other disposition made, and other pertinent facts. Attach separate sheet if necessary. (Go to freemason.org/applicant for more information on the definition of a minor traffic violation. If you are not sure if the traffic violation is minor, please list it below.)

Statement by the applicant

I respectfully represent that, unbiased by friends and uninfluenced by motives of financial or material gain, I freely and voluntarily make this application to receive the degrees of Freemasonry; that I am prompted to solicit this privilege by a desire for knowledge and personal growth, and a sincere wish to be of service to humanity; and that I promise, if found worthy, to conform to all the ancient usages and regulations of the fraternity. I understand the application qualifications and swear that (check those that apply):

- I am a man at least 18 years of age
- I believe in a Supreme Being and a future existence
- I have resided in California for at least twelve months or qualify under the United States uniformed services exception*
- I have never pled guilty or no contest to or been convicted of a crime of moral turpitude*

See explanation at freemason.org/applicant.*

I authorize any member of the lodge, Grand Lodge, or any person requested to do so by the lodge to make any investigation and background check into my personal history and character, including civil and criminal records. I understand that this procedure may entail contacting persons either known or unknown to me. I authorize all persons and entities contacted for such purposes to divulge requested information. I unconditionally and voluntarily waive, release, and discharge any and all claims, causes of action, liabilities or damages which I may have now or in the future against the lodge, lodge members, recommenders, Grand Lodge, and outside investigative services arising or resulting directly or indirectly from this application and the background investigation, and indemnify and hold harmless all such parties from any claims, causes of actions, liabilities, or damages that may be available to me under current or future laws.

- I have read the information for applicants at freemason.org/applicant.
